

Linda Kay Flanagan

July 14, 1948 - February 14, 2024

Linda Kay Flanagan (Horn) passed away peacefully on Valentine's Day, February 14, 2024, at StoryPoint Senior Living in Gahanna. Linda was a loving mother to her two sons, Brian (Kristin) and Kevin (Heather); a loving grandmother to Aaron (Sabrina), Paul, Allison, Samantha (Noah Gilbert) and Cole; a loving great-grandmother to Malachi; and big sister to Laurie (Paul Tudor), all of whom she is survived by.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Bud and Bertie Horn; her sister, Karen Daniels; and her loving husband, Brian.

Linda loved nothing more than having her family gathered at her home, especially for Sunday meals and NASCAR races. She was a 1966 graduate of Gahanna Lincoln High School and quickly following graduation married her high school sweetheart, Brian Flanagan. They were married for 55 years before she lost Brian to liver cancer in 2022. Linda was a receptionist at Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities for 25 years. Linda loved her family and friends, shopping, attending car shows and NASCAR races with Brian and watching crime shows and Let's Make a Deal.

A celebration of life open house will be held Saturday, March 2 from 12:00pm-3:00pm at Flanagan's Pub, 3001 Reynoldsburg New Albany Rd, Blacklick, OH 43004.
