“ I met Lisa officially in 2022, when I started working at Marathon with her. I immediately knew she would have a special place in my heart. She accepted me for me no matter how weird I looked or seemed. She always cared to know me. She made me a part of her family. She always made sure to put a lot of thought and love into her Christmas presents for everyone she loved and I'll cherish the spooky things she picked out knowing I'd love them. :) She was one of the kindest people towards me, she and her family always made sure I had something to eat if I needed it. I am so blessed to have known Lisa. The last conversation we had was her telling me she went all the way out to London, Ohio with her sister Wendy to go visit and see my mother's grave, which means so much to me, it's the nicest thing anyone has ever done for me. I like to think she gets to meet my mom up in heaven. I miss you so very much already, Lisa, I wasn't ready to say goodbye as I know many others weren't, but I can't wait to see you again. I love you so much. Lisa lit up every room she was in, she had such a warm light radiating from her. When I go to the zoo, or watch old black and white horror movies, wherever I am, you'll always been in my heart.

It was a pleasure to call Lisa my sister in law the whole twenty three years I had Todd as my husband. I would go to the gas station always hoping to see her smiling face. I hope heaven is ready for sure, Todd and Lisa!!

“Lisa is a good friend of mine plus we worked together. I also knew Lisa's mom who we called Sue. Lisa has a big heart and she's so kind hearted...she would do anything for her family and friends. I remember when we went out to eat at The Chubby Hawaiian...she loved it. We had a good time that day and talked to the owners who were kind and answered all our questions. I could write a ton more but just remember Lisa...I love you and miss you so much.
