

Lisa Marie Baer

December 28, 1961 - May 23, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Lisa Baer, who left us on May 23, 2025, after bravely battling colon cancer. Born to Patricia and Donald Smith, Lisa lived a life defined by love, strength, and resilience.

Lisa was a devoted mother to her daughters, Samantha, who passed away in 2005, and Tiffany. The loss of Samantha deeply affected Lisa, but she carried her daughter's memory in her heart, honoring her spirit in every aspect of her life. As a grandmother, Lisa cherished the moments she spent with her granddaughters, Laci and Brianna, and found immense joy in her great-granddaughter, Eliza. Each of them brought light to her life, and her love for them was boundless.

Renowned for her kindness and compassion, Lisa possessed a remarkable talent for recognizing the goodness in those around her. A free spirit at heart, she had a passion for art, a love for animals, and was an exceptional cook.

Lisa's journey through her battle with colon cancer showcased her remarkable strength and courage. Even in her toughest moments, she remained a source of inspiration for her family, teaching them the importance of resilience and the power of love.

She is survived by her beloved daughter, Tiffany; her grandchildren, Laci and Brianna; and her great-granddaughter, Eliza, along with many other family members and friends who will miss her dearly.

A celebration of Lisa's life will be amongst Tiffany and her daughters at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to cancer research organizations in her name, continuing her fight against this disease that took her too soon.

Rest in peace, Lisa. Your spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those who loved you.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Lisa Baer.

“ I love you, Grandma. Even if im not listed as your grandchild I know that I am. Thank you for showing me kindness when no one else in that family did. Thank you for the gifts you gave me; I have that alien keychain on my wallet and I carry it everywhere I go. Just like I carry you with me. Rest easy. -your grandchild, Alyssa Trinity Budd.

“ Lisa and I became friends when we lived next door to each other nearly 45 years ago. We were pregnant with our oldest girls at the sane time. Heather was born in January, and Tiffany in March. We reconnected on Facebook a couple of years ago but I haven't heard from her in awhile. I had no idea she was sick. Fly high, my old friend. Reat in peace in Jesus' arms. ❤️

“ I remember as it was yesterday when you were married to Guy me and Mark would go over your house every weekend and we would play scrabble we would have so much fun she could make you laugh in an instant she was hilarious. I remember when I put the Freddy Krugger mask and claws on and scared you and guy in the bedroom how I wish we lived closer we would of remain friends even though we lived apart you will always remain my friend. I will miss you Lisa all the GoodTimes we shared together will remain in my heart I will miss you sweet angel now go and make all of our angels in heaven laugh just like you did her on earth. I will always love and miss you you're an angel you got your wings now you can fly with the angels. (rip)
