

Lisa Marie DeCarlo

March 6, 1963 - June 2, 2025

Lisa M. DeCarlo, 62, passed away at her home in Columbus, Ohio on June 2, 2025. She was born on March 6, 1963.

She was a graduate of Groveport Madison High School, Class of 1981. Lisa was known for her heart of gold. She loved her family and friends and made strong bonds with many coworkers over the years. For many of her earlier years she worked as a server at quite a few establishments. She took pride in the relationships she formed with her customers. Lisa was also a lover of animals. She formed deep bonds with her furry friends. They provided love and loyalty to her for many years. Lisa enjoyed cooking, reading, watching TV, and vacations at the beach somewhere.

She is survived by her brothers and sisters. Several aunts, nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her father, mothers, aunts, uncles, brothers and grandparents. Our hearts are full knowing she will be reunited with her son who was born sleeping.

Cremation services provided by the loving staff at Day Funeral Service. Our family is very grateful for the resources offered to us and want to give a heartfelt thanks to all who had a part in giving us comfort during this time of loss. We will always remember your integrity and support.

We will remember Lisa with love and wish her an eternity of pure love and peace. You are free now... We will see you again! 🙏💖

CELEBRATE LIFE!

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Lisa DeCarlo.
