

Lynn E. Mikula

October 4, 1955 - April 20, 2020

Lynn Ellen Mikula passed away on April 20, 2020 after a courageous six month battle with cancer. She was born October 4, 1955 to Earl and Mary Ellen Fink. Lynn graduated from Austintown Fitch High School in 1974. She spent her career caring for others; she was a nurse's aide at Northside Medical Center for more than twenty-five years and most recently worked at The Inn at Bear Trail in Lewis Center. Lynn loved to read, garden, cook and bake, and spoil her grandbabies. She was met in heaven by her parents; older sister, Alice Marie; niece, Amanda; nephew, Kenny J; and her beloved, Martin Hough. She leaves behind her three daughters, Miranda (Phillip) Batianis of Maumee, OH, Leandra (Dan) Bokesch of Lewis Center, OH, and Samantha Mikula of Columbus, OH; her grandbabies, Michael Phillip, Rylee Mae, Madalyn Maria and Ruby Paige. Lynn's family wishes to express their tremendous gratitude and thanks to the phenomenal staff at Capri Gardens for taking such excellent care of their mom during her last couple of months. A memorial service for Lynn will be held later on this summer. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Lynn Ellen Mikula.

“ Lynn took care of my mother Sally at The Inn of Bear Trail, she is devastated with Lynn’s passing. She loved Lynn with all the care she provided for her and the residents! I know she is in a special place in heaven because of her love of family and her caring heart ❤️ Hugs to her family. Melody Garnes and Sally Millar.
