“ Dearest Marge you will be deeply missed. I was blessed to meet Marge when Patricia would bring her out with her to visit me. I loved her witty humor and getting to know her. She was a gem. I hold her friendship, those beautiful eyes and her wonderful smile close to me for comfort for the days ahead.
Praying for the family, may you feel GOD’S love and presence within you.

“ Aunt Marge will be missed so much! The time she let her nieces come into her basement and she brought down all kinds of ingredients to “make” anything we wanted. We ended up with flour all over. She loved her family and everyone loved her! RIP Aunt Marge

“ Aunt Marge could always put a smile on my face even if she had to use both hands to do it, a special place in my heart will always belong to her. ❤️ ☐
