

Marilyn G. Schirtzinger

May 11, 1949 - January 17, 2025

Marilyn G. Schirtzinger was born on May 11, 1949, and passed away on January 17, 2025.

She was a special lady who loved God, family, and friends. A Kentucky girl at heart, she made her home in Columbus, Ohio, and met Dave, her husband. They were married on December 30, 1979, and just celebrated 45 years of marriage. She was a facilitator, always seeking to gather those she knew and loved and those she didn't—she never met a stranger and was a “mom” to many. There was always a seat at her table and plenty of excellent food to go around. She dedicated her life to working in human services in early childhood education and later as a home health aide. Caring for others and being of service were at the heart of everything she did.

She was preceded in death by her son, Micah; her parents, Earl J. Hardy and Oralee Hardy; and her brothers, Terry, Wendell, Kendall, David, and Donny.

She is survived by her husband, Dave Schirtzinger; children, Michael (Julie), David (Jamie), and Carilee (Tiffany); grandson, David; granddaughter, Genesis; and many nieces and nephews.
