“ Mark was a fun cousin. We always laughed and joked when we were all together! He was loved and will be missed. I am so glad he accepted Jesus into his heart and someday we will see each other again in Heaven.

He is Loved and missed so much! He was kind, funny and the best uncle a person could asked for. We say his name often. He lives in our hearts and memories. I hear him in every rumble of every bike that goes by...

I see him in every blue sky!

I think of him when the wind hits my face.

I can't wait until that day that we are in the same place...

I hope that he rest is easy until that day. Because I will want to hug him all day.

I miss his advice and his long talks. His laugh I can still hear if I close my eyes and listen hard enough...

I see him in my oldest son so much. Sometimes I sit back and I laugh and just watch him as I can see Moe right in front of me. We were all very lucky to be able to have him for such the short time that we did.

As the date approaches on his going home, I still miss him as that day still seems like it was yesterday...
