“ Maurice A Howard (MOMOMOMOMO...) is what I always called him and he would always turn and breakout with his BIG Contagious Smile and Laugh. I will miss you my Brother in so many ways. The times spent Cooking for our family and friends gathering. Two memories of you that will always be a part of my life is Celebrating ur BDAY and Vacations, WOW those were always SPECIAL. NO one could celebrate a BDAY better than you with so much JOY, HAPPINESS, SPIRIT, EATS and All the Trimming with CLASS and when it was time for VAC in the last few years you spent it with Bonnie and me. We would jump in the Car and ride, one year you CRACKED us UP when we went to CINN. at Jungle Jim where we toured the different Countries in the Store and we took PICS, Ate and Clowned at every STOP, then go back to the house and let you catch up on all the TV SERIES, COOK and JUST HAVE a GREAT TIME. I will MISS ALL of That MOMOMO, I love you MAN and ALL that you shared and brought into mines and Bonnie's LIFE, YOU ARE THE TRUTH and GOD BLESS!!

Jacque
Dear

“ Maurice, my little cousin, whose stature was matched with a big smile, big heart and big love that covered a multitude. I will miss you and your generous caring warm spirit, your robust laugh and hearty humor. I do remember and cherish our childhood memories that carried right into adulthood. No one but God, knows the loving imprint that you left on each and everyone of our hearts. You will always be my little Ree Ree (as Grandmother Thyralee named you) and no one will ever take that from me. I love you beyond this world's understanding. So rest eternally little cousin in our Savior's arms. As always, may God's grace and peace be with our family and with all those who were absolutely and completely blessed by this eternal soul.

“ A kind soul, a beautiful heart, an uplifting spirit, a contagious laugh. One thing that comes to mind is that Bonnie and I will never be able to ask for a "practice hand" when playing bid whist anymore :) He got such a kick out of that. So many things will remind me of Mo, and I will just smile. You will be greatly missed. My prayers go up for the entire family.
