“ There are no words to express the sadness I felt when Dianna phoned me about the death of Merle. He was a great man that loved his wife and family and his friends and above all God. I have known him and his family for over 50 years so I have many happy memories to be his friend. I hope there will be some relief in knowing that Merle is not suffering any more and he is in Heaven. With thoughts, prayers and love, Mary Hursey

“ We were blessed to be welcomed to Merle and Dianna’s every Tuesday for the past several years for small group (Bible study).

To say we are more like family is an understatement. Our son Alex (who’s 12) has called them grandma and grandpa for a long time.

I personally loved his hugs and deep love for our Lord. His deep love for Dianna, his children and nature were undeniable.

We will miss him so much , but without a doubt we know he is with our Lord and Father, Love Debi, Alan and Alex McKenna
