“ I don't think of Aunt Pam as gone away, her journey has just begun.

Our lives hold so many journeys, this earth is only one.

I think of Pam just like my Dad as resting in the sun, from the sadness and tears, in a place with warmth and love. Where there are no days or years.

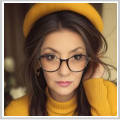

I believe she is hoping we all could know today, how nothing but our sadness is what only can pass away.

She would want us to think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched, for nothing loved is ever lost, and Aunt Pam was loved so much.

Even those she did not know, who still loves and keeps her in their hearts.
