“ Becky was a sweet lady with beautiful smile & wonderful voice. We were all a family at the West Jeff Church. Becky was a lot like her Mother, they were both such sweet & wonderful Christian ladies whom I loved very much. I'm sad for the family but not for Becky, she has reached her Heavenly Home & her work on earth is finished. She has earned her eternal rest with Jesus. Prayers to you Matt & Cara & your families & may the Lord be with you in your sorrow.

“ What I remember most about her is her beautiful smile and her laughter that was so contagious! When she laughed, you couldn't help but laugh with her. As a young girl and teenager, I always thought her to be so beautiful and classy. The West Jeff Church and the people there are in some of my best memories of my youth. I remember one of the favorite songs that they would sing and I think it is very appropriate: Now don't you weep for me when I'm gone....for I won't have to leave here alone. When I hear that last trumpet sound, my feet won't stay on the ground. I'm gonna rise with a shout I'm going to fly. I'm gonna rise with my Lord in the sky. Heaven is near and I can't stay here so Goodbye, world, goodbye." Now, her call came before ours but I know that her prayer would be that we all join her one day in Heaven. Much love and prayers to Matt and Cara and their families. I know she will be greatly missed!
