Jeff was preceded in death by his parents, Bob and Dottie Ishler. Jeff was born on July 4, 1963 and truly lived that firecracker life until his very last breath. Jeff is a veteran of the United States Navy. He was loved deeply by so many friends and neighbors who were like family. He had many friends in the community and many that he knew from his childhood. Special love and appreciation to Capital City Hospice and the nurses who took such good care of him-Jamie, Simone, Emily and Miranda.

Jeff worked for many years in Avionics. He enjoyed his time working for The Mug, The Gahanna Hardware store and Craleys Lock shop, where he developed so many important and loving friendships.

Jeff deeply loved his wife Kim, who he often referred to as his beautiful bride. His grandkids will tell you he made the best chocolate milk ever. Jeff will be waiting in his Moat for his beloved son-in-law, Vince. His six grandkids truly lit his eyes up every time he was around them. Their lives will forever be touched by the impact he had on them. They were six lucky kids to call him Papa/Grandpappy.

“ Jeff always gave a friendly smile, wave and a funny joke whenever we seen he and the family outside visiting, him passing by in the golf cart with kiddos in the neighborhood or driving by. He will be missed. We gifted a tree in remembrance of Jeff. We send love and our condolences. Love, Marcus + Lauren Trujillo

“ I remember Jeff as a small ornery boy and then a man with such a funny sense of humor. I know he loved his parents, Robin, and his whole family. Prayers and love for his family as you go through this difficult time. Connie Lambeth
