

Ronald A. Shillingburg

February 4, 2020

Ronald (Ronnie) A. Shillingburg, 67, of Plain City, Ohio passed away on February 4, 2020 at home in the loving arms of his wife and daughter. Ron was born on November 13, 1952 to the late Garland and Rosie Shillingburg. He is survived by wife, Aleta; daughter, Dena (Scott) Todd; step grandchildren; Skylar and Preston; brothers; Ralph (Janie) Shillingburg and Dan (Cindy) Shillingburg; and in-laws; Margaret and Bob Inman, Rob (Kim) Inman and Gayla (Tim) Lynn.

Ronnie loved the Outer Banks, playing cards and get-togethers with family and friends. He also enjoyed time with his horses, barn cats and pugs. He was employed by Sorenson Communications as a video relay interpreter for the deaf.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Grainger and team as well as OhioHealth Hospice for taking great care of Ronnie during his colon cancer battle. He is a warrior and will be in our hearts forever.

In lieu of flowers donations in his memory may be made to the Columbus Colony Elderly Care Interpreter Fund or in his name to your favorite charity.

“ My heart goes out to all of you. Ron will be sorely missed. His sense of humor and his kindness and genuine gentleman is a rarity. It is taking time to get use to not seeing his vehicle in parking lot first thing in the morning and the good mornings when I walk into work. Praying to you all during his absence. Hugs to you all.

“ Aleta: I shall always remember growing up with you and Ronnie, the fun we all had can never be forgotten and will remain in my heart he was such a great person and friend. To you Ronnie, until we meet again, you will be missed. Bless your heart you were a great husband to my friend, who was your best friend and wife, Aleta and a wonderful father to your daughter Dena, and I thank you Sir, for that. “ When I think of Ronnie I think of his beautiful smile and how when he watched us acting silly he just shake his head and smile. Thinking of you.
