

Sharon Kay Young

March 12, 1962 - March 24, 2026

Sharon Kay Young (née Robison), 64, passed away on March 24, 2026. Born on March 12, 1962, in Columbus, Ohio, Sharon lived a life defined by quiet kindness, deep love for her family, and a gentle spirit that touched everyone who knew her.

Sharon was a devoted wife to her husband, Leslie Young, and a loving mother to her two children, Jordan and Jessica. She was a proud and adoring grandmother to Liam and Norah, who brought immense joy to her life. She is also lovingly remembered by her son-in-law, Jimmy.

A gentle soul, Sharon, found beauty in the simple things. She had a deep love for nature and filled her home with plants and flowers, creating a warm and peaceful space for her family. An animal lover at heart, she almost always had a dog by her side, reflecting her caring and compassionate nature.

Sharon enjoyed spending time watching television series, especially science fiction, and she delighted in thoughtful conversations and spirited debates about her favorite movies and shows. She was also a dedicated fan of the Ohio State Buckeyes and especially looked forward to basketball season each year.

Above all, Sharon was a deeply loving mother and grandmother. Her presence brought comfort, warmth, and unconditional love to her family. The space she leaves behind cannot be filled, but her memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Sharon was preceded in death by her parents, Harold and Karlene Robison, and her brother, Timothy Robison. She is survived by her husband, Leslie Young; her children, Jordan and Jessica (Jimmy); her cherished grandchildren, Liam and Norah; and her sister, Linda Robison Luksik.

The family will be holding a private ceremony to honor Sharon's life.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Sharon Young.
