

Shelia Dean Massie

February 6, 1958 - December 28, 2020

Shelia Dean Massie, 62, passed away in her home on December 28, 2020 in Pleasantville, Ohio. Shelia was born February 6, 1958 in Logan, West Virginia to the late Virgil Perry, Sr, and Madge Perry (Marcum).

Shelia attended Franklin Heights High School and was unable to graduate but later received her GED.

Shelia loved to cook for family and friends and worked as head cook in the Dublin City School District for several years. She loved her grandbabies, her dog Elvis, and many animals she had rescued over the years, even the raccoon family that made a home under hers. She loved nature and watching and feeding the birds. Shelia was very strong in life and in her love of Jesus. She will be dearly missed.

Shelia is survived by her son, Mick Massie (Angela Bell) and her daughter, Candace Star Massie (Luke Smith); grandchildren, Odessa Massie, Nara Massie, River Smith, Sparrow Smith, and Alder Smith; her siblings, Darrell Perry (Bertie Perry), Virgil "J.R." Perry, Jr (Darla Perry), Connie Perry, Bobby Perry (Brittany Schools), and many loving nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Shelia is preceded in death by her Grandparents, Leonard Perry, Lola Perry (Damron), George Marcum and Cozie Marcum (Ferguson) as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Funeral services are provided by Day Funeral Service. There will not be a visitation; the family will have a graveside service on January 5, 2020 at 1pm, Internment Forrest Rose Cemetery.
