“ I will always remember the proud moment of seeing Steve perform his band solo when he was in Jr. High. The lights were dimmed, a spotlight appeared as Steve walked down the aisle of the arena playing his saxaphone. Alone. And he was incredible. I will remember him for his music, his love of fishing and watching for deer in the woods behind my house. I am sad for our family's loss, but I know he is finally at peace.
He is loved.

“ A Blessing for the Bereaved from "Blessings For Family & Friends"
The Lord gives, & the Lord takes away: Blessed be the name of the Lord. I know whom I have believed & am persuaded that he is able to keep what I have committed unto him until the day of his coming. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, & with the trumpet of God, & the dead in Christ will rise. I know that my Redeemer lives & that in the end he will stand upon the earth & in my flesh I shall see him. O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory? Blessed be the name of the Lord who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
