

Sydney J Cook

November 8, 1945 - November 8, 2022

Sydney J. Cook was born November 8, 1945, in Los Angeles, California to the late Richard Bruce and the late Dorothy (Wallace) Bruce. Sydney passed to her eternal rest on November 8, 2022 – her 77th Birthday.

Sydney grew up in Florida, and due to the generosity of a Christian family, she came to know God's love and asked Jesus Christ to forgive her sins and become the Lord of her life. Thanks to the generosity of some other friends, she was able to attend Baptist Hospital Nursing School and graduated in 1966.

While in Nashville, Sydney began attending First Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee. She met Thomas J. Cook who had moved to Nashville to attend Vanderbilt University. Sydney and Tom were married at the church on August 15, 1966. Shortly thereafter, they moved to Chicago where Sydney served as a nurse while Tom pursued his master's degree and a doctorate.

While in Chicago, Sydney and Tom met Fran and John Brubaker and they became lifelong friends. They traveled together and even though they each moved to different cities, they stayed friends across the generations.

In 1972, Tom and Sydney moved to New Jersey for five years, and then settled in Gahanna, Ohio.

They joined First Baptist Church Gahanna. Then in 1987 they moved their membership to Jersey Church. During the past 50 years, Sydney taught children, sang in the choir, and with her creative ability led a team in decorating the church and making banners with the names of God.

Sydney was preceded in death by her parents, and her brother, Richard Clayton Wallace. She also was by her husband's side when he went to be with the Lord on October 28, 2021.

A memorial service will be held at Jersey Church, 13260 Morse Road, New Albany, Ohio, 43054 on November 28, 2022, at 6:00 PM. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made for International Missions in memory of Sydney Cook c/o Jersey Church, 13260 Morse Road, New Albany, Ohio 43054. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve Sidney J. Cook.
