Tribute Wall

“ You and I have been through a lot together from the 6th grade to the 7th grade to have an issues then to loving each other then being family then being sisters raising our kids together. No matter the issues that you and I have had I've always had your back with your brother and I still do so all is good I'll keep an eye on the kids and your grandkids and I'll take care of your big brother. Love you and miss you.

“ To my Big Sister,
I have now lost you for the second time. Both times, equally as painful. Except now, you are not hurting or in pain. You are not battling or struggling any longer. There is no worry or stress on your heart. You are at peace and this truth brings comfort to me and hopefully to the rest of the family.
I will never forget the Big Sister that I not only looked up to, but wanted to be just like. I will remember your way of telling stories that could make me feel like I was there myself. I will never forget your charisma and how funny and animated you were. I will cherish the memories when we laughed and cried together. I will remember the good mother that you were and I promise to try and connect with my nieces, nephew and your grandchildren to honor the sister that I love.
Rest in Peace Big Sis.
Your Littlest Sis, Joni
