

Tora "Toran" Shannon Davison

February 14, 1973 - July 21, 2020

Tora Shannon Davison, aka Toran arrived on this earth on February 14, 1973. His twilight was July 21, 2020. Family was not told about his death until the 17th of August. Tora was certified in Horticulture, and he was also a gifted dancer and singer. Tora had an exceptionally good vocabulary, and he is the only person that I have ever known to read the Dictionary. His favorite Catch Phrase was "Whatever, However". He was clever to a fault, and he had a lot of good ideas that he wanted to put into motion, but that was cut short. He leaves to mourn his passing, his mother and stepfather, Betty Jean and Lewis France; his sister, Melanie Juana Davison; his brother, Adrian Depriest Davison; his two uncles and their wives, Marcus and Pamela Hood and Delvin Demetrious and Jawanna Hood. Tora also loved his nephews, Terrence Davison and Jam 'Arco Davison and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Tora is preceded in death by his dad, Tyrone Kersey, the Producer of the song "Disco Inferno." For those who would like to attend Tora's memorial service, it will be on Zoom on Saturday, September 5, 2020 at 3:00 PM. You can call his mother Betty France for the pass code to get into the services, 419-612-7600.

“ To my "Toran" A great childhood friend. We use to do it all family, sing, dance, lifeguard, and wrestling. I had the chance to talk with you and connect before your death. I'm gonna miss you, if anybody know you they will remember your charm, vocabulary, and most of all you muscles. To a great friend R.I.H.

RIH Toran! I'm gonna miss the laughs every time we run into each other but I want you to know I'll be on that fishing trip we talked about here soon. You were always a great friend to me and always had my back from day 1. You were defiantly the life of the party and always had the ladies eyes on you! To young to be gone and will never be forgotten. Whenever I take a trip down memory lane you will defiantly be included! Thanks for all you have to so many! Field House Crew for life!!! Love ya my fallen friend!
