“ I've never met anyone in my life as prayerful as Victor. We used to find prayers scribbled on legal pads all around the house: "T.Y.L.J..." ("Thank you Lord Jesus...") followed by a lot of letters for which we couldn't possibly guess the meanings. He'd keep a cross or rosary in his truck, or he'd carry them around the house, silently praying. We used to think it was silly, the way he'd rattle off a prayer randomly for no reason at all. I know all of that praying is allowing him to rest in Heaven with the Lord. T.Y.L.J. for allowing Victor to watch over his family from Heaven <3

“ Brother,
I will miss your laugh, your attempts at speaking Dutch and your sense of humor. You were the brother I never had.
