

William Lukens

July 3, 1958 - April 1, 2024

William Lukens of Columbus, Ohio, former resident of Michigan and Florida, passed away April 1, 2024, at 65 years of age. He is survived by his beloved wife of nine years, Cynthia; daughter, Jacquelyn (Daniel) Spohr; step-daughter, Taylor Fox; mother, Joanne Holton; brother, Jim (Sally) Lukens; sister, Marygenia Fox; nephews and nieces, Richie Lukens, Adam Lukens, Alex Lukens, Zoe Fox and Ethan Fox.

Sadly, Willie is preceded in death by his brother, Charles Lukens; step-father, Langdon Holton; niece, Katie Lynn; and father, Charles Lukens Sr.

After graduating from Walnut Ridge High School in Columbus, Ohio Willie pursued his passion for tennis. He was a semi-professional tennis player and a member of the Columbus Tennis East Club. Willie went to school for drafting and engineering in Pittsburgh and went on to work for Ford Motor Company, where he specialized in troubleshooting new model releases across the US and Canada.

Willie enjoyed the rugged outdoors, backpacking, camping, fishing and boating. He liked gardening, animals, and had a deep love for the many pets he had throughout the years. Willie loved a good time and liked to entertain and cook for family and friends. His presence and laughter will be dearly missed.
